Crossway Small Groups are a great next step in your relationship with Jesus. Our small groups are a place to meet new people and start friendships while studying God's word together. Whether you've never been part of a small group, want to continue with your current group or need a different group for this season in life, we look forward to connecting you with the right group.

Important information

New groups for Fall 2018 Small Group will begin the week of September 30th.

There are two ways to sign up for a group:

1. Go to the Hub in the commons
2. Go to www.crosswaycc.org/smallgroups

After you sign up you will get a confirmation from the group leader, as well as the meeting location and any curriculum that needs to be purchased.

Unless noted, groups will meet weekly and childcare is not available.

If you don't see a group that works for you, contact your campus pastor about leading a group!

Co-Ed

These groups are intended for anyone to join; male or female, single or married, these groups are places for you to meet people, take next steps with Jesus, and learn more about God.

Monday

C12: Sermon Based Group

- Small group for multigenerational men and women looking to discuss the message from Sunday morning. We will also dig deeper into the scripture that goes along with it, and how we can apply it in our everyday lives.
- This small group will be based each week on the Crossway sermon. We will discuss the scripture, challenges and applications that were given in the sermon
- 7:00 - 8:30 pm
- Led by Kim and Julia Williams
- Location: Brookline, NH

C13: Sermon Based Group

- Small group for multigenerational men and women looking to discuss the message from Sunday morning. We will also dig deeper into the scripture that goes along with it, and how we can apply it in our everyday lives. Children welcome, but childcare not provided.
- This small group will be based each week on the Crossway sermon. We will discuss the scripture, challenges and applications that were given in the sermon

- 6:30 pm
- Led by Joel and Sandra White
- Location: Nashua

Tuesday

C14: Chip Ingram's Study on Titus

- In this study we will discover how God intends for us to display the gospel in our lives through doing good.
- 7:00 pm
- Led by Bob DiBella

C15: Colossians: Against the Tide

- The Book of Colossians teaches principles for living a Christian life in the midst of a non-Christian culture. Sometimes this calls for us to stand against the tide of public opinion or popular trends. This study will address such issues as how to please God, develop a stable walk with God, think like a Christian, live with a focus, and become a prayer warrior.
- 7:00 – 9:00pm
- Led by Shirley Paquette
- Location: Hudson

C16: Book of Acts

- From the beginning of the church where Jesus prepares His disciples for the mission to come by reaffirming the promises made about Himself and by His ascension and predicted return, through the Great Commission and the role that each of us plays in discipleship and the growth of the church. You'll be encouraged and challenged by this group.

- 6:00 pm
- Led by Steven Gautier
- Location: Panera Bread

Wednesday

C07: Celebrate Recovery

- Celebrate Recovery is a Christ-centered program with foundations firmly established in Biblical truth. The 12 Steps with accompanying Scriptures and the 8 Principles based on the Beatitudes offer participants a clear path of salvation and discipleship; bringing hope, freedom, sobriety, healing, and the opportunity to give back one day at a time through our one and only true Higher Power, Jesus Christ. The 12 Steps and the 8 Principles work seamlessly together, tying historical recovery to timeless Biblical teaching.
- 6:00 – 7:30 pm
- Ongoing
- Led by Rick Rutter
- Location: Downtown Campus

C17: Starting Point

- Everything has a starting point-your life, your relationships, your education, your career. Sometimes we forget that faith has a starting point as well. For some of us, our faith journeys began in childhood as a set of beliefs handed to us by a parent, teacher, or pastor. Maybe you developed a framework of faith based on personal experience. Or maybe you had not faith at all. Too often, a faith formed in childhood isn't strong enough to withstand the pressures of adult life. But what if you could find a new starting point for faith?

- 7:00 – 8:30 pm
- Led by Avalon Lewis and Mark Detering
- Location: Pond Office Conference Room

Men

These groups are designed to tackle issues cover topics helpful and important to men. These groups are for men only, to provide a space for men to grow closer to one another, and feel freer to share their life and struggles for support

Thursday

M02: Bible Study

- An ongoing Bible Study in various formats related to men's issues.
- 7:00 – 9 pm
- Led by Richie Sherman and Mike Gagne
- Location: Pond Campus Open Classroom

Saturday

M03: Book of Revelation

- The book of Revelation takes us to the very heart of all history, the heart of the universe itself where we find the LORD Jesus Christ sharing the throne with His Father, surrounded by the Holy Spirit. At the center of reality, behind all the apparent confusion and chaos of this passing age, the Living God rules through Jesus, the Lamb and Lion of God. Jesus and His Bride, the Church, are seated in heaven far above all the powers of this age, as we wait for that day of judgment and new creation.
- 8:30 – 10:00 am
- Led by Bob Wherry
- Location: Pond Office Conference Room

6th to 12th Grade Students

Sign up for a group if you would like to be a part of a student ministry small group. Jacob Albrecht will connect you with leader and location.

W05: The God you may not know

- "The God you may not know" by Dr. David Jeremiah with a DVD and study guide.
- 9:30 – 11:00 am
- Duration: Fall
- Led by Anna Walsh
- Location: Anna Walsh's home

Tuesday

W04: The Fruit of The Spirit

- This session will be on Galatians 5:22-23 The study touches on how this fruit can be lived out in practical ways in our own lives while seeing them lived out in scripture.

- It is exciting to realize that all these virtues are inside Christians because the Holy Spirit has taken up residence in us. God's highest purpose for us as Christians is to be more like Jesus (Romans 8:29). Nothing is more attractive to others as a life exhibiting these beautiful qualities that can be a powerful tool for promoting harmony and unity in the body of Christ.
- 6:30 – 8:00 pm
- Led by Dianne Webster and Teri Garza

Thursday

W06: All Things New

- We will be studying 2nd Corinthians using the study called All Things New by Kelly Minter.
- No childcare available
- There is a book required for the study. It's $18.95 on amazon or $12.99 on lifeway (but would have shipping costs)
- 9:00 – 11:00 am
- Fall and Spring
- Led by Ally Felo and Sarah Ward
- Location: Sarah Ward's home

Family

Wednesday

F01: Lifeline

- Lifeline is a small group geared towards families of children aged 0 through pre-teen. We focus on building into one another's lives with and understanding of the challenges that can be encountered during this stage of life. Together, we worship, pray, and hope to grow closer to God.
- 6:30 – 8:00 pm
- Childcare offered ($5 per family per week)
- Led by Greg and Jess O'Neil and Brian and Stacy Douglas
- Location: Pond Open Classroom

Thursday

F02: Real Families, Real Needs: A Compassionate Guide for Families Living with Disability.

- Every family struggles from time to time, but when a disability rocks a family, it can send shock waves that affect each member differently. Each family member will have questions about his or her role, and unique needs for support. Real Families, Real Needs, provides answers that are rooted in biblical truth, practical ideas, and expectant hope.
- 7:00 – 8:30 pm
- Led by Tim and Joan Lafferty

- Location: Lafferty's home

Young Adults

YA01: Esther

- This group is a women's Bible study on the book of Esther. Esther is a predominant feminine character in the Bible, whose life, struggles, accomplishments, and her relationship with God is still an encouraging model for women today.
- Women's group
- 7:00 – 9:00 pm
- Led by Vicky Thomas and Haley Roundtree
- Nashua

YA02: The Gospel of John

- This is a Co-ed small group that will be studying the Gospel of John. This Group will be taking a in-depth look at John's Gospel and seeing how Jesus' life, ministry, and approach to adversity can be applicable to our lives today.
- 7:00 – 9:00 pm
- Led by David Knight and Chris and Kayla Chamberlain

- Nashua

YA03: The Book of Hebrews

- Description: This is a Co-ed small group that meets on the boarder of downtown Nashua and Hudson. This group will be studying Hebrews. We will be looking at how pivotal Hebrews is in how we understand who Christ is and his importance to the Old Testament, the New Testament, and today.
